DEDICATION

To Hazel Johnson, who has given fifteen years of untiring service to Delta High School, we, the Seniors of 1949, wish to dedicate the Del-Hi Diary. We hope in this small way we can express our gratitude and gratefulness for all the little things she has done to help the students of Del-Hi. As teacher of Speech and English, Mrs. Johnson has proven her efficiency and achievements. Included in these are the debates and many plays she has directed. We also want to give our hearty thanks for the helping hand she gave in making this annual a success.

FOREWORD

LET'S STEP OUT FOR A LOOK AT THE YEAR

The year caught a spirit of evolution and change as Delta High continued to grow with the times, accented by the quickened tempo of an alert and increasingly aware student body and faculty. A tradition already hallowed was enriched and perpetuated by this year's group of an intimate student body, a student body distinct in the degree of its loyalty and friendship.

Come with us as we record our life at school this year. As we trace the memories and events, our work and play together, look and listen closely . . . there is the faint reverberation of a once mighty cheer from the football stadium . . . the sparkle and glamour of the Junior-Senior Prom . . . bright days in a bright year.

All of us owe these people our thanks and appreciation.

They are the bus drivers who put up with our noise and pranks. We're no angels, especially when we start having a good time. And there are those weeks of icy or muddy roads. But our bus drivers always come through. We can always depend on our bus drivers to get us to D. H. S. safely.

Now that we're all in school we find helpers there too. Whether it's picking up papers, wiping up ink, mowing the lawn, shoveling coal or shoveling the snow and ice off the walks, our maintenance people come through. To you we say thanks loads for keeping our school building and grounds clean and attractive.

FAREWELL

It's really hard to explain to you just how a graduate feels:
 We're sorry to leave our school (although this sorrow we try to conceal).
 But still we're looking forward to this new, bright life in which we'll dwell;
 So when people ask if we're sorry or glad we're graduating, which it is we just can't tell.
 But we leave this book so we can relive these years which held such happy days;
 And here are just a few remembrances as we go along our way.
 Remember that paper cutter, in the office, that squeaked but never cut??
 Remember that tough algebra problem that had you in a deep, dark rut??
 Remember that important basketball game we won in the last few seconds of play??
 Remember that day you were throwing paper wads and got yourself caught, much to your dismay??
 Remember that solo you had in the band and you went and hit a glaring wrong note??
 Remember when you'd go to your locker for your coat, and everything else came out but that coat??
 Yes, in these four years, we've had our ups and downs; we've lost and then again we've won
 But through victory and defeat we have to admit we've sure had loads of fun.
 So, when we're lonely and feeling gray, we'll open up this Del-Hi Diary and say,
 Hi Delta and all my friends, with you it's always a pleasure to remember my high school days.

The 1947 Broadway hit, "Years Ago" by Ruth Gordon, was presented by the Senior Class on April 8, 1949. The autobiographical play dealt with the problems of Ruth (Janis Shrull) and her mother (Sharon Keller) in telling father (Glen Mattin) that she wanted to be an actress and getting his consent. Father's great desire was to make Ruth a physical culture instructor so he invited the two finest physical specimens he knew, Mr. Bagley (Chuck Hunt) and Miss Glavin (Jane Finger), to come to his home and show Ruth and mother the value of Indian clubs.

Katharine (Shirley Rychener) and Anna (Gerry Bernath), Ruth's best friends, did all they could to comfort Ruth by reading the latest Theatre Arts magazine to her and showing her the latest photographs of a stage star's private life.

Mother and father had their troubles too, for father couldn't see why they had a grocery bill of two dollars every week and why Muffins, the cat, had to have special meat. The installation of the latest crank style telephone also caused a crisis in the Jones' household.

The stage crew, under the direction of Bob Smith as stage manager, had a very effective stage showing, the old-fashioned dining-sitting room of 1913. The long skirted costumes of the girls also lent a very nostalgic charm to the play.

Complications ensued when Ruth finally told of her desire to go on the stage, especially with her Harvard boy friend, Fred (Allen Segrist), but father aided instead of hindered and all ends well with the arrival of Mr. Sparrow (Paul Galbraith), who owned a wagon, for Ruth's trunk and her departure for the Broadway stage.

P. S. She ended up a star and playwright.

The Senior Class would like to thank Mr. Klee for directing a very successful class play.

CLASS WILL

We, the senior class of 1949, of Delta High School, being a little disrupted and in sound state of confusion, hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, thus revoking any previous wills as of May 26, 1949.

We, as a class, bequeath the following to underclassmen:

To the Juniors we will the trouble of making up the required credits for graduation.

To the Sophomores we will our ability to make so much money for class trips on game concessions. Our largest $12.65.

To the Freshmen we will our ability to retain a large class. We started with 57 and are graduating with 26.

I, GERALDINE BERNATH, will my brother Daryll, to any girl who thinks she'd want to put up with him.

I, GENEVIEVE BUYER, will my speed in getting over to Kramer's for lunch, to Miss Nau.

I, ZOA ANN CLAIR, will my ability to drive, to the future Drivers' Education classes.

I, ANNA MAE CLAY, will my mimeograph ability to Carol Chamberlin.

I, SUE FALOR, will my Social Problems book to all the kids who quit school last year to get married.

I, JANE FINGER, will my English essay, "Why Are We Bad?" to Tom Studer.

I, PAUL GALBRAITH, will my way with women to Gene Vance.

I, MARY JANE GEARIG, will the editorship of the Green and White to Sue Segrist.

I, BETTY JO GRAFFICE, will my red hair and temper to Mr. Klee.

I, BETTY HARMON, will by stubbornness to anyone who wants it.

I, CHARLES HUNT, will my speech book to anyone brave enough to attempt it.

I, PATSY IRWIN, will my sense of humor to Dick Mohler.

I, SHARON KELLER, will my cheerleading ability to Neil Whitmer.

I, JEAN KIDDER, will my democracy essay, "My Ideal Man," to Marilyn Ruger.

I, GLEN MATTIN, will my ability to get to school on time to Doug. Lozer.

I, ILLA ROSE McQUILLIN, will my bottle of peroxide to Shirley Mandly.

May 19, 1948, at 7:05 P. M., the Junior class left Toledo's Union Station for Washington, D. C. Last year, because of a ruling placed against the use of a school bus except in your own area, we traveled on the B. & O.'s Ambassador Limited.

Breakfast was served in the diner the next morning, and upon arrival in Washington, we were met by a Sightseeing, Inc., representative. Our first glimpse of Washington was of President Truman. He was boarding his special train.

Our first stop was the White House, followed by the Pan American Building, Capitol, Congressional Library and the U. S. Supreme Court Building. While we were at the Capitol, a photographer took our class picture on the lawn with the Capitol in the background.

At 1:00 P. M. we arrived at the Hotel Annapolis and our rooms were assigned. After luncheon in the Everglades Dining Room of the hotel, we went to the U. S. Naval Observatory and last to the unfinished Washington Cathedral.

After dinner, everyone enjoyed a three-hour moonlight cruise on the Potomac.

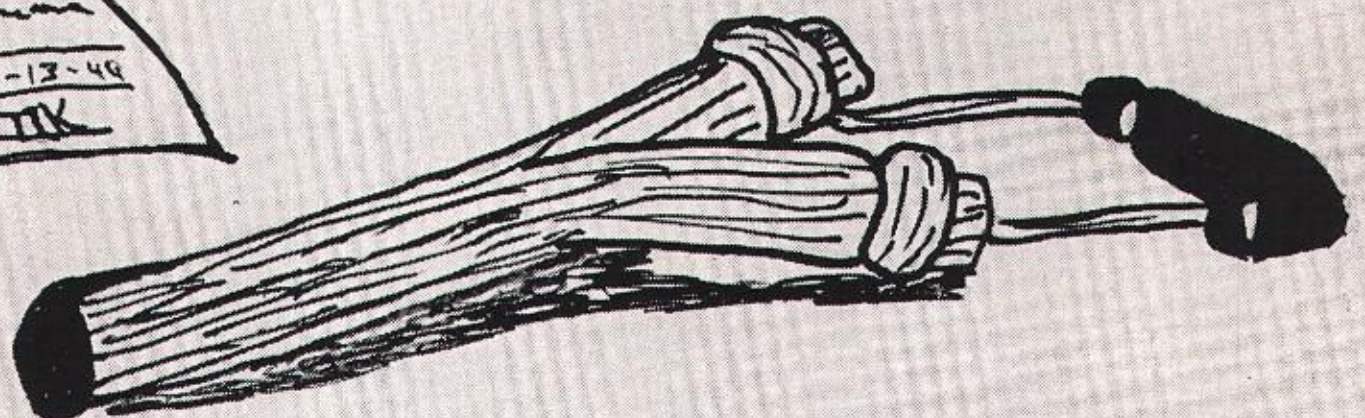

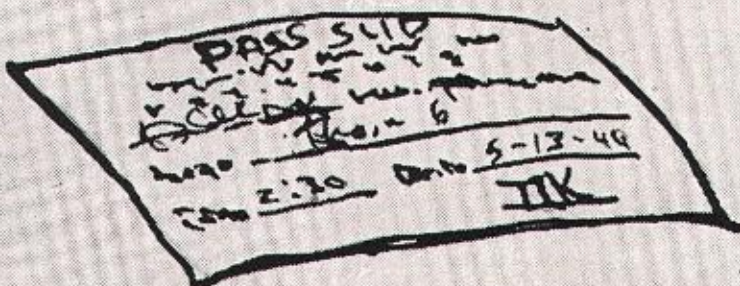

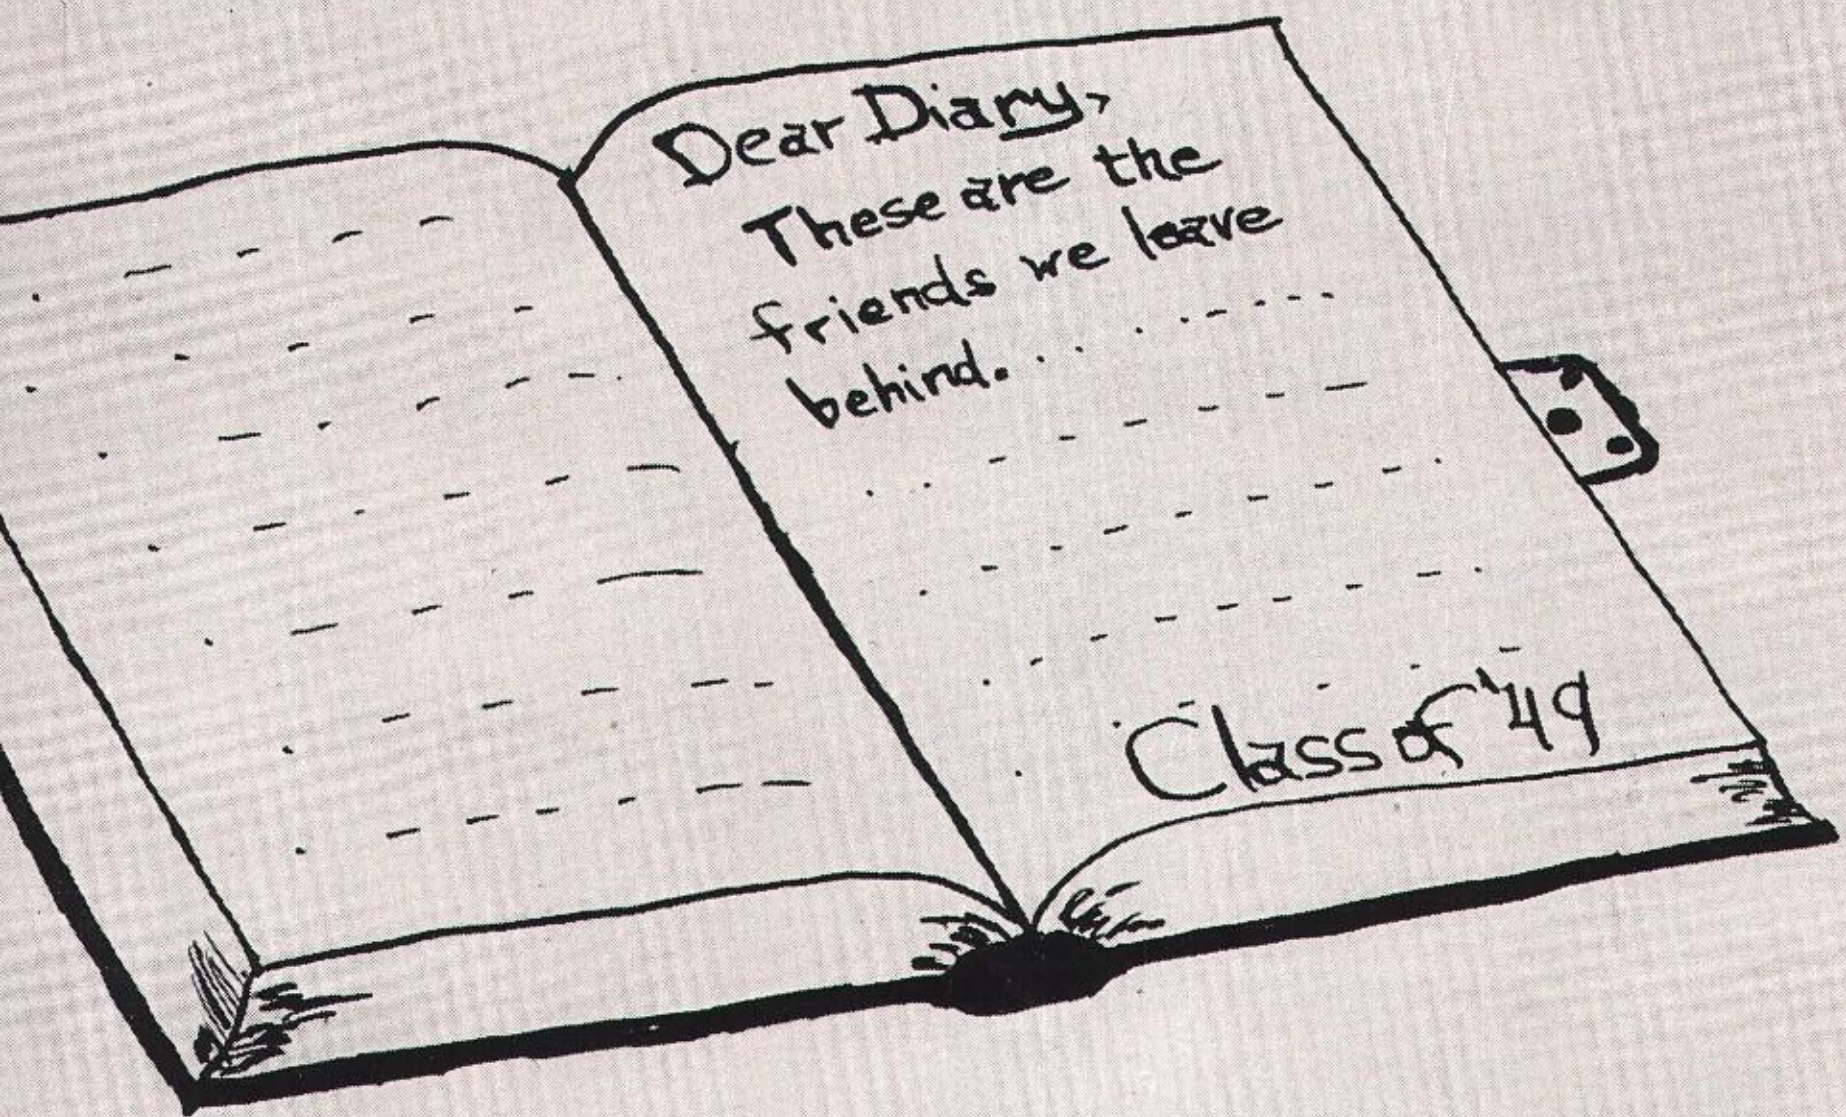

Friday, we visited Washington Monument, Bureau of Engraving, U. S. National Museum, Archives Building, F. B. I., and finally the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland. While touring Annapolis, we were fortunate enough to see Budd Knapp, a former graduate of Delta.

Saturday, the last day in Washington, we went through Smithsonian Institute, and in the afternoon toured the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Arlington National Cemetery, Alexandria, Mt. Vernon, and Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials.

Joyce Cox, a former graduate of Delta, was also visiting Mt. Vernon at the time we were there. She is now a head nurse and supervisor of a ward at the Washington University Hospital.

Our three-day visit soon sped by and we found ourselves again on the train for Toledo. I am sure everyone will agree this was a most educational trip, and was immensely enjoyed by all who went.

The Junior class has been exceptionally busy this year. In September, the Juniors chose their class rings, and received them as an early Christmas present. The class play, being the most outstanding event, was presented with great success on November 30. The Juniors also worked hard managing most of the football and basketball concessions, to raise enough money for the traditional trip to Washington, D. C., in June. Besides all this, they produced a very nice Junior-Senior Banquet. We have good reasons to be proud of our industrious Junior class this year.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

First Row Seated: Donelda Lozer, Donna Fortney, Elsie Keiser, Marcia Koester, Carol LaSalle, Betsy Shelt

Second Row Standing: Clifford Eckert, Kent McKee, Doran Snyder, David Beatty, Doris Brown, Margaret Bratton, Sue Segrist, Mrs. Mack

Third Row Standing: Arthur Welch, Marilyn Ruger, Milton Hollinger, Calvin Brehm, James Nofzinger.

"And Came The Spring," a comedy of modern youth was presented November 30, 1948, by the Junior class, under the direction of Mrs. Mack.

It is the story of a typical American family who suddenly find themselves surrounded by spring, and love. On the first day of spring vacation, Midge, the youngest, finds herself amidst her first love, Buzz Lindsay, but it seems that the gentleman of her choice is unluckily in love with Midge's older sister, Virginia. When Midge attempts to manage lives and emotions to suit her own needs, the hectic and hilarious conditions into which she plunges the family almost prove disastrous. She causes her sister almost to lose the right boy; she disrupts brilliant brother Elliott's carefully planned life as a writer of tragic novels; she threatens her father's business; in short the sanity and well-being of everyone concerned is threatened. But in the end, Midge again steps in and fixes things up; and by the time spring vacation is over, the three Hartman children have taken important steps toward maturity. Their parents have learned a few things, too.

The characters were: Mr. Jeffrey Hartman—Jim Nofzinger; Elliott Hartman—Dave Beatty; Buzz Lindsay—Everett Neville; Keith Nolan—Milton Hollinger; Freddie North—Art Welch; Mr. Fields—Kent McKee; Alan Fields—Calvin Brehm; Mrs. Fields—Doris Brown; Mrs. Louise Hartman—Betsy Shelt; Midge Hartman—Elsie Keiser; Virginia Hartman—Donna Fortney; Edna—Carol LaSalle; Clancy—Doran Snyder; Carollyn Webster—Marcia Koester; Christine Myers—Sue Segrist; Gabby Allen—Margaret Bratton; Messenger Boy—Skip Eckert.

Mrs. Mack did a splendid job as director.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

First Row: Mrs. Johnson, Jean Sindel, President; Paul Tedrow, Vice President; Opal Green, Secretary; Carole Smith, Treasurer; Richard Mohler, Student Council; Mr. Klee

Second Row: Glenda Lou Alspaugh, Lois Arnold, Juanita Baugh, Daryll Bernath, Genevieve Beaverson, Bob Borck, Hal Bowerman.

Third Row: Archie Buchanan, Nancy Currier, Martha Dickerson, Luella Eaton, Jack Eickholt, Audrey Evans, Joan Evans

Fourth Row: Ray Fitch, Bob Greisinger, Paul Greutman, Patsy Harris, Doris Hoffman, Lucille Johnson, Richard Konrath

Fifth Row: Valerie LaMont, Shirley Mandly, Leon Mann, Doris McKibbin, Jon McQuillin, Chalmer Mohler, Marilyn Morr

Sixth Row: Glenn Mull, Modesta Neville, Jean Raker, Howard Reckner, Richard Roth, Melba Schoonover, Bob Segrist

Eighth Row: Roger Tappan, Althea Terwilliger, Marilyn Tracy, Terry Trowbridge, Jerry Tuckerman, Max Ulrich, Patricia Vaughan

Ninth Row: Arthur Wachtman, Janice Williams, Hermine Winseman, Gretchen Winterhoff

The Sophomores have had a busy year making as much money as possible for their trip to Washington, D. C. Magazine campaigns for the Crowell and Curtis Publishing Companies kept them busy during the month of February. Valerie LaMont became star salesman in the class by selling $119.60 worth of subscriptions. Next on their agenda was the 5-H banquet on March 29. The class mothers prepared the food and the class served a delicious meal. But all work and no play even makes Sophomores dull, so to prevent that unfortunate circumstance the class had an informal party in December.

ELEMENTARY GRADES

Those were the days. Remember?? Cutting, pasting and drawing. And we thought that was work. Think back on those days. Haven't you changed?? It makes you realize you've grown up, doesn't it?? Those were carefree days. Now, as high school students and graduates, we have to face responsibilities.

But to the elementary grades we say: In you we see a future high school. Then you'll be the band, athletic teams, debaters, office helpers and all the other organizations. But, we'll be there rooting for you because we know you'll come out strong for Delta High School. You've a wonderful future. We wish we were entering instead of going out. You're in the best years of your life. Enjoy those years and study hard to make the most of them.

Our High School Band deserves all the praise for its year's work. During the summer months the band made many trips to several homecomings, the Fair and other outside events.

During the football season they really went out in a big way. Along with the snappy green uniforms they had white spats, white gloves and lights for their hats.

On October 28 the band went to Bowling Green to hear the Marine Band Concert. November 6 the band attended the Ohio State and Pittsburg football game. Here they saw both bands perform during the half. On December 21 the band played for the town Christmas program which was broadcast over WSPD "Sidewalk Interview."

Also in the music department is the Mixed Chorus with 67 members who attended the district auditions at Ada. This year we have a well-balanced group.

Bumps, scratches, mud, rain, snow. That's right, I'm describing the football season. We had a small team again this year. Nevertheless, they were in there fighting in every game. The boys came out of the season with no serious injuries. They gave plenty of thrills to their followers and all of us were eager to watch them play. The best game of the season was the Whitehouse game. It ended up in a scoreless tie (O-O). Delta did score a touchdown, however, but it was called back because of a penalty.

Our basketball team was right on top this year. The five was tied for second place in the Maumee Valley League, second in the Fulton County League, and third in the Fulton County Tournament.

The team was an even scoring crew. No one was consistently the high scorer. That honor was divided evenly among the entire five, giving us a well-balanced team.

Among the starting five were two juniors and one sophomore. This will leave a fine group to head next year's team. Good luck fellas!

Congratulations to the team and the Coach. You did a swell job.

May 26-30 the Senior class of 1948 enjoyed a most educational trip to Washington, D. C. The class was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Whitcomb. They left Toledo's Union Station at 7:05 P. M. and traveled on the B & O's Ambassador Limited. One of the first new experiences for the students was eating breakfast in the diner, before reaching Washington.

They arrived at 9:15 A. M. and were immediately taken on a four-hour morning tour of the White House, Pan American Building, Capitol Building, Congressional Library and the U. S. Supreme Court Building. At 1:00 they finally reached the Hotel Annapolis where the group received their room assignments. Luncheon was served in the Everglades Dining Room of the Hotel Annapolis.

In the afternoon the class toured the Washington Zoo and the beautiful but still unfinished Washington Cathedral. In the evening, the class enjoyed a three-hour Moonlight Cruise on the Potomac.

The next day also included a very heavy schedule. First came the Washington Monument, followed by the Bureau of Engraving, the U. S. National Museum, the Archives Building, and the F. B. I. The F. B. I. was especially interesting to the students as they were shown just how the F. B. I. goes about tracing down desperate criminals, murders and spies. After lunch at the hotel, the group took a four and one-half hour tour to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland.

The last day in Washington the entire morning was spent at the Smithsonian Institute. In the afternoon they visited the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Arlington National Cemetery, Alexandria, Mt. Vernon, and the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials.

At 6:50 P. M. they were again on the train, but this time headed for Toledo, as their year's trip was completed. A choice of roast turkey or baked ham was enjoyed in the diner that evening. They arrived in Toledo at 7:30 A. M., Sunday, very tired but very happy and much wiser.
